11. MARKETING MATERIALS & BRAND GUIDELINES

11.1. The Employer shall provide the Employee with approved marketing materials, including but not limited to product brochures, price lists, presentation templates, digital assets, and sample products, as required for the performance of their duties.

11.2. Brand Compliance: The Employee shall at all times adhere to the Company's brand guidelines, including:

(a) Use of approved PECH brand colors (Sky Blue #00BFFF, Orange/Amber #F5A623, Dark Blue #0099CC, and associated palette) in all materials;

(b) Use of approved logos, trademarks, and brand assets only in the manner prescribed by the Company's Brand Guidelines Manual;

(c) Ensuring all customer-facing communications reflect the Company's brand values of reliability, quality, and value for money;

(d) Not creating, modifying, or distributing any marketing materials without the prior approval of the Marketing Department.

11.3. Prohibited Activities: The Employee shall not:

(a) Make any false, misleading, or unauthorized representations about PECH Products, pricing, capabilities, or the Company;

(b) Offer unauthorized discounts, rebates, or special terms to customers without the written approval of the Business Development Manager;

(c) Use the Company's name, logo, or brand for any personal or unauthorized purpose;

(d) Engage in any marketing practice that may bring the Company into disrepute.

11.4. Return of Materials: All marketing materials, samples, and brand assets provided to the Employee remain the property of the Company and must be returned upon termination of employment or upon request.

12. CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIP MANAGEMENT

12.1. CRM System: The Employee shall use the Company's designated CRM system to record and manage all sales activities, customer interactions, leads, opportunities, and pipeline data. All entries must be accurate, complete, and made within twenty-four (24) hours of the relevant activity.

12.2. Customer Ownership: All customer relationships developed by the Employee in the course of their employment belong to the Company. The Employee shall not:

(a) Claim personal ownership of any customer accounts or relationships;

(b) Divert or attempt to divert any customer or business opportunity away from the Company;

(c) Contact or engage with Company customers for personal business purposes during or after employment.

12.3. Customer Data: All customer data, contact information, purchase histories, preferences, and communications collected by the Employee are the exclusive property of the Company and constitute Confidential Information under Clause 14.

12.4. Customer Complaints: The Employee shall promptly report any customer complaints, disputes, or issues to the Business Development Manager and shall cooperate fully in the resolution of such matters.

12.5. Handover: Upon termination of employment, the Employee shall provide a comprehensive handover of all customer accounts, active opportunities, and pipeline items to the Business Development Manager or their designated successor.

13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

THIS CLAUSE IS CRITICAL AND THE EMPLOYEE SHOULD READ IT CAREFULLY.

13.1. Assignment of IP: The Employee hereby irrevocably assigns to the Employer all right, title, and interest in and to all Intellectual Property created, developed, conceived, or reduced to practice by the Employee, whether alone or jointly with others, during the term of employment, including:

(a) Any Intellectual Property created during working hours or using the Employer's resources, equipment, or Confidential Information;

(b) Any Intellectual Property that relates to the business, products, services, marketing strategies, or research of the Employer or the Group;

(c) Any Intellectual Property created outside working hours if it relates to or is capable of being used in the Employer's business;

(d) All marketing strategies, campaign concepts, sales methodologies, customer databases, market research, and competitive analyses developed by the Employee during employment.

13.2. Copyright Assignment: Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 13.1, and in express compliance with the Copyright Act (Cap C28, LFN 2004), the Employee hereby assigns to the Employer all copyright and related rights in all works created during the course of employment. The Employee acknowledges that under Nigerian law, copyright in works created by an employee may not automatically vest in the employer, and this express assignment is intended to ensure that all copyright vests in the Employer.

13.3. Moral Rights: To the extent permitted by law, the Employee waives any moral rights in works created during the course of employment, including the right to be identified as the author and the right to object to derogatory treatment of the work.

13.4. Pre-Existing IP: The Employee shall disclose in Schedule B any pre-existing Intellectual Property that the Employee owns or has rights to as of the Commencement Date. Any IP not disclosed in Schedule B shall be deemed to have been created during employment.

13.5. Further Assurance: The Employee shall, at the Employer's expense, execute all documents and do all things necessary to give effect to this assignment, including assisting with patent applications, copyright registrations, trademark filings, and other IP filings.

13.6. Survival: The obligations under this Clause 13 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

14. CONFIDENTIALITY

14.1. Definition: "Confidential Information" means all information (whether written, oral, electronic, or in any other form) relating to the business, operations, finances, technology, customers, suppliers, employees, strategies, and affairs of the Employer and the Group, including but not limited to:

(a) Customer lists, contact details, purchase histories, pricing arrangements, and transactional data;

(b) Sales strategies, pricing structures, discount policies, commission rates, and marketing plans;

(c) Product roadmaps, product specifications, technical documentation, and trade secrets;

(d) Business plans, financial data, revenue figures, and projections;

(e) Source code, algorithms, software architecture, APIs, and platform infrastructure details;

(f) Employee data, salary information, and HR records;

(g) Supplier terms, vendor agreements, and procurement strategies;

(h) Any information marked or identified as confidential;

(i) Any information that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential.

14.2. Obligations: The Employee shall:

(a) Keep all Confidential Information strictly confidential and not disclose it to any third party without the prior written consent of the Employer;

(b) Use Confidential Information only for the proper performance of their duties;

(c) Take all reasonable measures to protect the confidentiality of such information;

(d) Not copy, reproduce, or store Confidential Information on personal devices or accounts except as expressly authorized by the Employer;

(e) Report immediately to the Business Development Manager any suspected or actual unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information.

14.3. Duration: The Employee's obligations under this Clause:

(a) Shall apply during the term of employment and indefinitely thereafter for trade secrets;

(b) Shall apply for a period of five (5) years after termination for all other Confidential Information.

14.4. Exceptions: The obligations in this Clause shall not apply to information that:

(a) Is or becomes publicly available through no fault of the Employee;

(b) Was already known to the Employee before employment, as evidenced by written records;

(c) Is independently developed by the Employee after termination without reference to Confidential Information;

(d) Is required to be disclosed by law, regulation, or court order, provided the Employee gives the Employer prompt written notice and cooperates with any efforts to obtain a protective order.

14.5. Return of Materials: Upon termination of employment or at any time upon the Employer's request, the Employee shall immediately return all documents, electronic files, equipment, and materials containing or relating to Confidential Information, and shall permanently delete all electronic copies in their possession or control.

PECH GROUP HOLDINGS LTD

15. NON-COMPETITION

15.1. The Employee agrees that during the term of employment and for a period of twelve (12) months after the termination of employment (the "Restriction Period"), the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of the Employer:

(a) Be employed by, engaged by, or provide services to any business that is in direct competition with the business of the Employer or the Group within the Restricted Territory;

(b) Establish, own, manage, operate, or participate in any business that competes with the Employer or the Group within the Restricted Territory;

(c) Assist any person or entity in competing with the Employer or the Group within the Restricted Territory.

15.2. Restricted Territory: Nigeria and any other country in which the Employer or the Group operates or has concrete plans to operate at the date of termination.

15.3. Competing Business: For the purposes of this Clause, a "Competing Business" means a business that operates in the same or substantially similar market segments as the Employer, including but not limited to: IoT platforms and devices, smart systems, solar energy solutions, digital marketplace platforms, commerce operating systems, payment processing, logistics technology, and smart infrastructure.

15.4. Reasonableness: The Parties agree that the restrictions in this Clause are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of the Employer, including its Confidential Information, customer relationships, and goodwill. If any court of competent jurisdiction determines that any restriction is unreasonable, the court may reduce the scope, duration, or territory of the restriction to the extent necessary to make it enforceable.

15.5. Consideration: The Employee acknowledges that the employment, remuneration, commission, and benefits under this Agreement constitute adequate consideration for the restrictions in this Clause.

16. NON-SOLICITATION

16.1. The Employee agrees that during the term of employment and for a period of twenty-four (24) months after the termination of employment, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly:

(a) Solicit, entice away, or attempt to solicit or entice away from the Employer or the Group any employee, contractor, consultant, or agent;

(b) Solicit, canvass, or approach any customer, client, or prospective customer of the Employer or the Group with whom the Employee had dealings during the last twelve (12) months of employment, for the purpose of offering competing products or services;

(c) Solicit, canvass, or approach any supplier of the Employer or the Group for the purpose of diverting business away from the Employer;

(d) Interfere with or seek to undermine the relationship between the Employer and any of its employees, contractors, customers, or suppliers.

16.2. Severability: If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the twenty-four (24) month duration specified in Clause 16.1 is unreasonable or unenforceable, the court is hereby requested to substitute the maximum duration that it considers reasonable and enforceable, and the remaining provisions of this Clause shall continue in full force and effect.

16.3. Scope: The restrictions in this Clause shall apply irrespective of the reason for termination, including voluntary resignation, dismissal, redundancy, or expiry of any fixed term.

16.4. Reasonableness: The Parties acknowledge that the restrictions in this Clause are reasonable and necessary to protect the Employer's legitimate business interests, including the preservation of its customer relationships, business connections, and workforce stability.

17. MEDIA POLICY

17.1. The Employee shall not, during the term of employment or at any time thereafter, without the prior written approval of the Chief Executive Officer or designated Communications Officer of the Employer:

(a) Give any public interview, press statement, or media appearance relating to the business, operations, or affairs of the Employer or the Group;

(b) Post, publish, or share on any social media platform, blog, website, podcast, or other public forum any information relating to the Employer or the Group;

(c) Participate in any conference, seminar, panel discussion, or speaking engagement where information about the Employer or the Group may be discussed;

(d) Author or co-author any article, paper, or publication that references the Employer or the Group.

17.2. Social Media: The Employee may, with the prior approval of the Business Development Manager, share approved Company marketing content on their personal social media accounts for the purpose of promoting PECH Products, provided that:

(a) Only officially approved content and messaging is used;

(b) No Confidential Information is disclosed;

(c) The Employee clearly identifies themselves as a PECH employee;

(d) All posts comply with the Company's Brand Guidelines and Social Media Policy.

17.3. Permitted Disclosures: The Employee may disclose their job title and a general description of their role (e.g., for LinkedIn profiles or professional networking), but shall not disclose any Confidential Information or specific details about the Employer's projects, clients, technology, sales figures, or strategy.

17.4. Breach: Any unauthorized public communication shall constitute Gross Misconduct and may result in summary dismissal and/or legal action for damages.

17.5. The Employee acknowledges that they have read and understood the PECH Media and Public Communications Policy and agrees to be bound by its terms.

18. DATA PROTECTION

18.1. In accordance with the Nigeria Data Protection Act 2023 (NDPA), the Employee consents to the Employer processing their personal data for the following purposes:

(a) Administration of the employment relationship;

(b) Payment of salary, commission, and benefits;

(c) Pension administration;

(d) Health insurance enrollment;

(e) Performance management, sales tracking, and training;

(f) Compliance with legal and regulatory obligations;

(g) Security and access control;

(h) Internal communications and directory services.

18.2. Categories of Data: The Employer may collect and process the following categories of personal data: name, address, contact details, date of birth, NIN, bank details, next of kin, medical information (as necessary), performance records, sales records, disciplinary records, and professional qualifications.

18.3. Third-Party Sharing: The Employer may share the Employee's personal data with:

(a) Pension Fund Administrators (PFAs) and Pension Fund Custodians (PFCs);

(b) National Health Insurance Authority (NHIA) and Health Maintenance Organizations (HMOs);

(c) Insurance providers;

(d) Nigeria Social Insurance Trust Fund (NSITF);

(e) Tax authorities (FIRS, State Internal Revenue Service);

(f) Regulatory authorities as required by law;

(g) Professional advisors (auditors, legal counsel).

18.4. Employee Obligations: In the course of their duties, the Employee shall:

(a) Process customer personal data only in accordance with the Company's Data Protection Policy and the NDPA 2023;

(b) Not collect, store, or process customer personal data on personal devices, accounts, or systems without authorization;

(c) Report any data breach or suspected data breach immediately to the Business Development Manager and the Data Protection Officer.

18.5. Data Retention: The Employer shall retain the Employee's personal data for the duration of employment and for a period of six (6) years after termination, or as required by applicable law.

18.6. Employee Rights: The Employee has the right to access, correct, and request deletion of their personal data, subject to the Employer's legal obligations and legitimate interests.

19. CODE OF CONDUCT

19.1. The Employee shall at all times conduct themselves in a professional manner and in accordance with the Company's Code of Conduct, policies, and procedures as amended from time to time.

19.2. The Employee shall:

(a) Act with honesty, integrity, and professionalism in all dealings with customers, colleagues, and third parties;

(b) Comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including consumer protection laws and advertising standards;

(c) Not engage in any form of corruption, bribery, or fraudulent activity, including offering or accepting kickbacks from customers or suppliers;

(d) Declare any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest to the Business Development Manager and/or HR;

(e) Use the Company's equipment, assets, and resources only for authorized business purposes;

(f) Comply with the Company's IT security policies, including the acceptable use of Company networks, devices, CRM systems, and accounts;

(g) Treat all colleagues, clients, and third parties with respect and dignity;

(h) Not engage in harassment, discrimination, or bullying of any kind;

(i) Maintain a professional appearance and dress code appropriate to the office environment and client-facing activities;

(j) Not engage in any activity that may bring the Company into disrepute;

(k) Report any unethical behavior, misconduct, or policy violation to the appropriate authority within the Company.

19.3. Anti-Bribery: The Employee specifically acknowledges that offering or providing any gift, payment, entertainment, or other benefit to any person for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business, or to influence any business decision, is strictly prohibited and constitutes Gross Misconduct.

20. TERMINATION

20.1. Notice Periods:

Period	Notice Required
During probation	1 month written notice by either Party
After confirmation	2 months written notice by either Party

20.2. Payment in Lieu of Notice (PILON): The Employer may, at its sole discretion, make a payment in lieu of notice equivalent to the Employee's base salary (excluding commission) for the applicable notice period.

20.3. Termination for Gross Misconduct: The Employer may summarily dismiss the Employee without notice or payment in lieu of notice for Gross Misconduct, which includes but is not limited to:

(a) Theft, fraud, or dishonesty;

(b) Willful damage to Company property;

(c) Breach of confidentiality or disclosure of Confidential Information;

(d) Gross insubordination;

(e) Conviction of a criminal offense (other than a minor traffic offense);

(f) Being engaged in or establishing a competing business during employment;

(g) Unauthorized public communication in breach of Clause 17;

(h) Serious breach of the Company's policies or procedures;

(i) Habitual absence without leave or permission;

(j) Being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs during working hours;

(k) Harassment, discrimination, or bullying;

(l) Falsification of records, qualifications, sales figures, or work history;

(m) Diverting Company customers or business opportunities for personal gain;

(n) Making unauthorized discounts, representations, or commitments on behalf of the Company;

(o) Misuse or misappropriation of Company marketing materials, samples, or funds.

20.4. Termination for Poor Performance: Where the Employee consistently fails to meet sales targets and KPIs after the completion of a Performance Improvement Plan as described in Clause 9.5, the Employer may terminate the Employee's employment with the applicable notice period.

20.5. Return of Company Property: Upon termination (for any reason) or at any time upon the Employer's request, the Employee shall immediately return:

(a) All Company laptops, phones, tablets, and other electronic devices;

(b) All access cards, keys, and security tokens;

(c) All documents, files, records (physical and electronic);

(d) All marketing materials, product samples, brochures, and brand assets;

(e) All Confidential Information in any form;

(f) All customer data, contact lists, and CRM records (which shall not be copied or retained by the Employee).

20.6. Exit Interview: The Employee shall attend an exit interview conducted by the HR department or designated officer.

20.7. Handover: The Employee shall prepare a comprehensive handover of all customer accounts, active sales pipelines, pending proposals, and ongoing projects within the notice period.

20.8. Final Settlement: The Employer shall pay all outstanding amounts (salary, accrued commission, accrued leave, pension contributions) within thirty (30) days of the termination date, subject to any lawful deductions and the return of all Company property.

21. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

21.1. Internal Grievance: Any dispute arising from or in connection with this Agreement shall first be addressed through the Company's internal grievance procedure. The Employee shall submit a written grievance to the HR department, which shall acknowledge receipt within three (3) Business Days and provide a substantive response within fourteen (14) Business Days.

21.2. Mediation: If the dispute is not resolved through the internal grievance procedure, the Parties shall attempt to resolve it through mediation administered by a mutually agreed mediator in Lagos, Nigeria, within thirty (30) days. The costs of mediation shall be borne equally by the Parties.

21.3. Arbitration: If mediation fails or is not initiated within the prescribed period, the dispute shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in Lagos, Nigeria, in accordance with the Arbitration and Mediation Act 2023. The arbitration shall be conducted by a sole arbitrator appointed by agreement of the Parties, or in default of agreement, by the President of the Nigerian Bar Association (NBA). The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both Parties.

21.4. Injunctive Relief: Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employer shall be entitled to seek injunctive or other equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction to prevent or restrain any breach or threatened breach of Clauses 13, 14, 15, 16, or 17 of this Agreement, without the requirement to first exhaust the dispute resolution procedures set out in this Clause.

21.5. Governing Law: This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, including but not limited to:

(a) The Labour Act (Cap L1, LFN 2004);

(b) The Nigeria Data Protection Act 2023 (NDPA);

(c) The Pension Reform Act 2014;

(d) The National Health Insurance Authority Act 2022 (NHIA Act);

(e) The Employee Compensation Act 2010;

(f) The Arbitration and Mediation Act 2023.

22. GENERAL PROVISIONS

22.1. Entire Agreement: This Agreement, together with its Schedules, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Employee's employment as an Office Marketer and supersedes all prior agreements, representations, negotiations, and understandings, whether written or oral.

22.2. Severability: If any provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, such provision shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid and enforceable, and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

22.3. Waiver: No waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach. No waiver shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the waiving Party.

22.4. Amendment: This Agreement may only be amended by a written instrument signed by both Parties.

22.5. No Assignment: The Employee may not assign or transfer any rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Employer.

22.6. Counterparts: This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original and all of which together shall constitute one agreement.

22.7. Notices: All notices under this Agreement shall be in writing and delivered personally, by registered post, or by email to the addresses specified in this Agreement. Notices shall be deemed received:

(a) If delivered personally, upon delivery;

(b) If sent by registered post, five (5) Business Days after posting;

(c) If sent by email, upon confirmed receipt.

22.8. Survival: Clauses 13 (Intellectual Property), 14 (Confidentiality), 15 (Non-Competition), 16 (Non-Solicitation), 17 (Media Policy), and 18 (Data Protection) shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

22.9. Relationship of the Parties: The Employee is an employee of the Employer. This Agreement creates an employment relationship and the Employee is entitled to all statutory benefits and protections afforded to employees under Nigerian law. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, or agency relationship.
